FESTIVAL HISTORY

In 2004 a group of visionaries formed the Downtown Improvement Committee for the purpose of erecting a statue commemorating the great saxophonist and composer John Coltrane, a High Point, NC native son. Coltrane was born in Hamlet, NC. He first learned to play the saxophone while growing up in High Point where he started his own band.

years later.

Since its inception, the John Coltrane International Jazz and Blues Festival has succeeded in bringing the very top names in jazz, paid homage to the blues, celebrated the life and musical legacy of the jazz genres greatest artist. The festival attracts a growing audience and enjoys burgeoning reputation as the destination for Labor Day weekend.

The addition of the Golf Tournament in 2019 was created to enhance the experience that the festival has to offer its participants during the Labor Day holiday weekend

The Friends of John Coltrane officially formed in the summer of 2009 as an outgrowth of the group of individuals who worked to raise funds to commission the John Coltrane statue. In 2009 the group decided to focus their energies on the creation of an annual jazz festival. The very first John Coltrane International Jazz and Blues Festival was held two
